

CLASS OF 1891

Rutgers College

HISTORY TO 1913

10

CLASS OF 1891

Rutgers College

Rutgers university, New Brunswick, N. J.

HISTORY TO 1913

COMPILED BY

REV. JOHN HOWARD RAVEN, D.D.

L-104752

1871

GIFT
THE COLLEGE

MAY 29 1948

CLASSICAL SECTION

JAMES BISHOP, M.D.

527 Fifth Avenue, New York City.

SON of Hon. James Bishop, Member of Congress and importer of rubber, and Mary Faugères Ellis (Bishop). Ancestors came from Woodbridge. James Bishop '91, the seventh of that name in direct line, all living in New Jersey. Born at New Brunswick, N. J., January 6th, 1870. Lived at New Brunswick and Trenton before entering college. Prepared at Princeton Prep. School. When 2-4 years old travelled in Europe—learned French before English. Captain Rutgers varsity foot-ball team, 1890. Member varsity base-ball team. Editor Targum. Delta Phi. After graduation attended Coll. P. & S. three years and was interne in hospital two years. Residence, New York City, since 1892. Assistant surgeon, Manhattan Eye and Ear Hospital. Assistant, Presbyterian Hospital. M.D. (Coll. P. & S. 1895). Member Collegiate Reformed Church of St. Nicholas. Republican. Avocation, yachting, hand-ball, tennis. Married, April 30th, 1900, Margaret Donald, daughter of Peter Donald of New York City. Has no children. Two brothers, two cousins, etc., among alumni of Rutgers. Has written various medical pamphlets. Hand-bali champion of the Y. M. C. A. for several years. Has a house in Scotland where he spends the summers.

EDWARD OTIS CHICKERING.

Died March 12th, 1898.

SON of Otis Chickering, civil engineer, and Caroline Mehitable Perry. Born at Brooklyn, N. Y., February 9th, 1866. Lived at Brooklyn and Catskill, N. Y., before entering college. Prepared at Catskill Academy. Studied civil engineering one year at Cornell on scholarship received at Catskill Academy. At Rutgers member of varsity foot-ball team, record-maker in high kick and high jump, historian in Freshman year, and Junior orator. Graduated with A.B. Graduated at N. B. Seminary, 1894. Licensed by Classis of Greene, 1894, and ordained by Classis of Illinois, 1894. Pastor, Reformed Church, Raritan, Ill., 1894-97, and Schaghticoke, N. Y., 1897-98. Studied at Albany Normal School. Republican. Married Jane Virginia Van Winkle, daughter of Garrett and Jane Van Winkle of Plainfield, N. J., November 18th, 1896. Daughter born April 23d, 1898, Anna Elizabeth Chickering. Published "God's Word on Baptism," 1896. Address of Mrs. Chickering, Plainfield, N. J.

HARRY ROSE DANNER,

1330 N. Meridian Street, Indianapolis, Ind.

SON of Rev. J. LeMoyne Danner, D.D., clergyman R. C. A., and Miriam M. Rose. Born in New York City, December 25th, 1870. Lived at New York City, East Orange, N. J., Peekskill, N. Y., and Paterson, N. J., before entering college. Promoted by extra work from '92 to '91. Member '92 foot-ball team, '91 foot-ball team, college choir, D. K. E. Ivy Ode, Class Day. Graduated A.B. Rutgers. Studied law, Univ. Minnesota. LL.B. (Univ. Minn. 1893). LL.M. (do. 1894). Ph.D. (do. 1896). Admitted to Bar in Minnesota, 1893, New York, 1896, Indiana, 1910. Residence, Minneapolis, 1891-94; Stillwater, Minn., 1894-96; New York City, 1896-1909; Indianapolis, Ind., 1909—. Lawyer. Also printing, lithographing and office outfitting business since 1909. Presbyterian. Republican. Married, May 16th, 1906, Caroline E. Burford, daughter of William B. Burford and D. Ella Hobbs of Indianapolis. Children: Helen Burford Danner, born February 16th, 1910; Henry Burford Danner, born July 7th, 1911.

HOWARD CROSBY HASBROUCK,

653 Schenck Avenue, Brooklyn, N. Y.

SON of Jared Hasbrouck (Rutgers, 1864), teacher, and Lucy Augusta Baldwin. Born at Jamaica, L. I., March 1st, 1870. Residence before entering college, Jamaica, L. I., Flatbush, L. I., and Bound Brook, N. J. Prepared at his father's private schools. Graduated at Rutgers with A.B. Graduated N. B. Seminary, 1894. Licensed by Classis of New Brunswick, 1894. Ordained by Classis of Raritan, 1894. Pastor, Reformed Church of Peapack, N. J., 1894-1900; Piermont, N. Y., 1900-04. and New Lots, Brooklyn, N. Y., 1904—. Republican. Married, June 4th, 1896, at Bound Brook, N. J., to Edna Van Liew Anderson, daughter of Rev. Charles Thomas Anderson and Joanna Bergen Van Liew. Children: Emily Winton Hasbrouck, born March 1st, 1898, and Charles Anderson Hasbrouck, born July 22d, 1900.

JASPER SAMUEL HOGAN,

219 Townsend Street, New Brunswick, N. J.

SON of Robert James Hogan, farmer, and Catharine Ann Whitbeck. Born at Guilderland Centre, N. Y., October 10th, 1867. Lived at Guilderland Centre, N. Y., until entering college. Prepared at Rutgers Prep. School, 1884-'87. In college, president of Y. M. C. A., president of Athletic Association 1890, editor of Targum, member varsity base-ball team four years and captain two years, member class foot-ball and base-ball teams four years. Delta Upsilon. Phi Beta Kappa. Commencement oration. Address to Undergraduates, Class Day. Graduated at Rutgers with A.B. Graduated N. B. Sem., 1894. Licensed by Classis of Schenectady, 1894. Ordained by Classis of Montgomery, 1894. Pastor, Reformed Church at Glen, N. Y., 1894-96; Pompton Plains, N. J.,

1896-1903; Lafayette, Jersey City, N. J., 1903-12, and First, New Brunswick, N. J., 1912—. Member, Board of Superintendents, N. B. Sem., 1909-12. Stated Clerk, do., 1912—. Progressive Republican. Avocations, tennis, golf and tramping. Married, June 14th, 1894, at Millstone, N. J., Ella May Bronson, daughter of John W. Bronson and Mary Williamson. Son, Harold Bronson Hogan, born July 18th, 1899. Relative, brother, R. J. Hogan '91. Published. Centennial History of Glen Reformed Church, and Memorial Address on Mr. Harry Louderbough, published in special memorial volume by Jersey City Board of Trade.

ROBERT JAMES HOGAN,

11 Hegeman Street, Schenectady, N. Y.

SON of Robert James Hogan, farmer, and Catharine Ann Whitbeck. Born at French's Hollow, Guilderland, N. Y., August 11th, 1865. Lived there until entering college. Frail in childhood. Canvassed for books in South Carolina and Georgia, four months, and California, five months. Worked in steam laundry in Cleveland, Ohio, five months. Prepared at Rutgers Prep. School. Played on varsity base-ball team five years (one year while in Prep. School). Sang in Glee Club four years and manager two years. Delta Upsilon. Graduated at Rutgers, A.B. Graduated, N. B. Seminary, 1894. Licensed by Classis of Schenectady, 1894. Ordained by Classis of Saratoga, 1894. Pastor, Reformed Church, Buskirk's Bridge, N. Y., 1894-97, and Bellevue, Schenectady, N. Y., 1897—. President Reformed Ministers' Association of Albany and Vicinity. President, one year, Schenectady Ministers' Association. Independent Republican. Avocations, base-ball, tennis, and some golf. Married, at Amsterdam, N. Y., July 3d, 1894, Helen Maria Spore, daughter of John A. Spore and Jane E. Kimmey. Son, Robert Jasper Hogan, born June 4th, 1897. Relatives among Rutgers alumni: brother, J. S. Hogan '91, and nephew, Burton J. Hotaling '03.

ABRAM WHITTAKER HOPPER,

409 Sixteenth Street, West New York, N. J.

SON of Abram J. Hopper, builder, and Amelia Stott. Born in Spring Valley, N. Y., February 4th, 1867. Residences before entering college: Spring Valley, N. Y., and New York City. Prepared in New York City and at Rutgers Prep. School. Entered law office at 14, left at 15, and went into printing business until 1885. In college, vice president of class, Junior year, Senior editor, Targum, Pipe Orator, Class Day. Graduated at Rutgers with A.B. Graduated, N. B. Seminary, 1894. Licensed by Classis of New York, 1894. Ordained by Classis of Rensselaer, 1894. Pastor, Reformed Church, Stuyvesant Falls, N. Y., 1894-99; Rensselaer, N. Y., 1899-1903, and West New York, N. J., 1903—. Ph.D. (Taylor Univ., 1902). President, North Hudson Ministers' Association, 1911-12. Chairman, Committee of 100, Men and Religion Forward Movement, 1912. Progressive Republican. Avocation, scouting.

Married, at New Brunswick, N. J., June 5th, 1894, Isabel Jayne Timmons. Children: Abram Victor Hopper, born May 24th, 1895, died December 1st, 1903; Vincent Foster Hopper, born April 19th, 19 ?

CHARLES WESLEY HULST,

Englewood, N. J.

SON of Peter H. Hulst, M.D., and Caroline Cornell. Born at Greenwich, N. Y., January 3d, 1870. Lived there until entering college. Prepared at Greenwich High School. In college, acting manager Scarlet Letter, 1890; senior editor '91 Scarlet Letter; author of "Lost Inheritance," '91 class play; Presenter of Mementoes, Class Day. Chi Phi. Graduated at Rutgers with A.B. Graduated, N. Y. Law School, 1898, with LL.B. Admitted to Bar of New York, June, 1898, and of New Jersey, November, 1910. Residences since leaving college: Williamsport, Penn., 1891-93; Englewood, N. J., 1893-97; Brooklyn, N. Y., 1897-1903; Englewood, N. J., 1903—. Lawyer. Democrat. Married, at Englewood, N. J., June 30th, 1904, Maud Jackson, daughter of Stanway and Elizabeth Jackson of Manchester, England.

CHARLES SEWARD JOHNSON,

241 West 77th Street, New York City.

SON of Charles Johnson, farmer, and Eliza Ackerman. Born at Morristown, N. Y., April 8th, 1861. Lived there until entering college. Prepared at the State Normal and Training School, Oswego, N. Y. Received First Sloan Entrance Prize, Rutgers. Business manager '91 Scarlet Letter. Presenter of Memorial, Class Day. Delta Upsilon. Graduated at Rutgers with A. B. Studied at N. Y. Univ. two years. Residence since graduation, New York City and suburbs. Latin Master, Collegiate School, 23 years. Methodist Episcopal. Independent Democrat. Married, at New Brunswick, N. J., October 16th, 1890, Elizabeth Gordon Hara. Children: Kenneth Hara Johnson, born 1893; Beatrice Elizabeth Johnson, born 1895.

HENRY LOCKWOOD,

East Millstone, N. J.

SON of Henry Lockwood, of Fraser, Lockwood & Co. (largest transfer business in Albany), and Margaret Ann Kelly. Born at Albany, N. Y., January 4th, 1869. Lived at Albany until four years old, then at Altamont, N. Y., until entering college. Studied at Albany Academy, 1883-85, and Rutgers Prep. School, 1885-87. Received Second Sloan Entrance Prize, Rutgers. Held 100-yd. two years. Won 50-yd. backward race twice. Played on varsity football, 1887-88, base-ball and lacrosse teams. Rutgers Glee Club. Delta Upsilon. Graduated at Rutgers with A.B. Graduated, N. B. Seminary, 1894. Licensed by Classis of New Brunswick, 1894. Ordained by Classis of Albany, 1895.

Pastor, Reformed Churches of Knox and 2d Berne, N. Y., 1895-1901, and East Millstone, N. J., 1901—. Permanent Clerk, General Synod, R. C. A., 1907—. Independent in politics. Avocations, base-ball and chess. Married, at South River, N. J., June 20th, 1894, Bertha A. Booraem, daughter of Jonathan Booraem and Margaret Amelia Barkelow. Children: Helen Booraem Lockwood, born October 16th, 1896; James Henry Kelly Lockwood, born September 10th, 1903.

SAMUEL CLIFFTON MABON,

45 Wall Street, New York City.

SON of Rev. William V. V. Mabon, D.D., LL.D., professor N. B. Seminary, and Emma Dean. Father was born in Queens Building, Rutgers College, and grandfather (Rev. John Scott Mabon) was Headmaster of the Queen's (later Rutgers) Grammar School from 1818 until 1825. Born at New Durham, N. J., June 21st, 1871. Lived there until 1881, then moved to New Brunswick, N. J. Prepared at the High School and Rutgers Prep. School, New Brunswick. In college, president of Targum Association, Junior orator, member Glee Club, orator Class Day, member base-ball team four years. Zeta Psi. Graduated at Rutgers with A.B. Teacher of Greek and English, Freehold Institute, 1891-92. Teacher, Dwight School, New York City, 1892-94. Studied law in offices of Abel I. Smith & Mabon, 1892-94, but did not take bar examination, having decided to go into business. Residences since graduation: Freehold, N. J., 1891-92; New Brunswick, N. J., 1892-93; New York City, 1893—. Entered business with Kingsley, Mabon & Duryee (now Mabon & Co.), 1894. Joined N. Y. Stock Exchange and became member of firm, 1900. Member Reformed Church. Republican. Avocations, base-ball and golf. Member, University Club, New York City.

WILLIAM FORDER METS,

New Market, N. J.

SON of Rev. James Andrew Mets, retired Baptist clergyman. A.B. (Chicago Univ. 1864), and Caroline Elizabeth Forder. Born at Tom's River, N. J., December 17th, 1870. Residences before entering college, Catskill, N. Y.; Somerville, N. J.; Jamesburg, N. J. Prepared at Peddie Institute, Hightstown, N. J. Prize for scholarship in Freshman year at Bucknell. Prizes in Mental and Moral Philosophy at Rutgers. Scarlet Letter editor '92. Ivy Planter, Class Day. Chi Phi. Graduated at Rutgers with A.B. Residences since graduation, Somerville, N. J., Bernardsville, N. J., and New Market, N. J. Principal and Supervising Principal of Schools. Baptist. Independent Republican. Avocations, chess and gardening. Married, December 28th, 1897, at Somerville, N. J., Ella M. Reger, daughter of Augustine Reger and Margaret Vosseller. Children: Margaret Elizabeth Mets, born June 3d, 1902; William Forder Mets, Jr., born February 2d, 1906.

REID FRANK MILLER,

345 Wilkes Circle, Santa Cruz, Cal.

RESIDENCE on entering college, Sacramento, Cal. Father, cashier of D. O. Mills Bank of Sacramento. Senior editor, Targum. Chi Phi. Graduated at Rutgers with A.B. Residences since graduation, Red Bluff, Cal., and Santa Cruz, Cal.

WILLIAM POHLMAN POOL,

166 Clinton Street, Brooklyn, N. Y.

SON of Rev. Charles Hubbard Pool, D.D. (A.B. Rutgers, 1863), secretary, Board of Domestic Missions, R. C. A., and Mary Scudder Pohlman. Maternal grandfather, Rev. William J. Pohlman (Rutgers 1834) founded the first Protestant mission in China. Born at Bedminster, N. J., August 19th, 1869. Lived there and at Raritan, N. J., until entering college. Prepared at Somerville Grammar School. Class president, Sophomore year; Targum editor; chairman Class Day Committee, 1891. D. K. E. Graduated at Rutgers with A.B. M.D. (Long Island College Hospital, 1894). Residences since graduation: Somerville, N. J., 1891-94; Brooklyn, N. Y., 1894—. Interne, Long Island College Hospital; associate visiting physician, King's County Hospital; associate gynecologist, Brooklyn Throat Hospital; associate gynecologist, Polhemus Memorial Clinic; associate professor of obstetrics and gynecology, and gynecological surgeon, L. I. C. H.; gynecologic surgeon, Bushwick Hospital. Member, Medical Society of County of Kings, American Medical Association, Brooklyn Gynecological Society, Brooklyn Pathological Society, New York Obstetrical Society, Associated Physicians of Long Island, Hamilton Club. Member Reformed Church. Republican. Married, May 29th, 1911, at Brooklyn, N. Y., Elizabeth E. Busch, daughter of Peter Busch and Emma Richardson. Relatives among Rutgers alumni: father, C. H. Pool '63; brother, Charles S. Pool '96; grandfather, W. J. Pohlman '34; uncle, William H. Pohlman '63.

JOHN HOWARD RAVEN,

185 College Avenue, New Brunswick, N. J.

SON of Anton A. Raven, president of the Atlantic Mutual Insurance Co. of New York, and Gertrude Oatman. Born in Brooklyn, N. Y., October 3d, 1870. Prepared at the Brooklyn Polytechnic, 1879-87. In college won Second Spader Prize in Modern History, Bussing Prize in Extempore Speaking, Sophomore Orator Prize. Gave address for students to Dr. Austin Scott, as president-elect and address at inauguration. Editor Targum. Prophet, Class Day. Zeta Psi. Graduated at Rutgers with A.B. Graduated N. B. Sem., 1894. Licensed by South Classis of Long Island, 1894. Ordained by Classis of New Brunswick, 1894. Pastor, Reformed Church, Metuchen, N. J., 1894-99. Professor, Old Testament Languages and Exegesis, N. B. Sem., 1899—. D.D. (Rutgers, 1899). Studied at University of Berlin and travelled in Egypt and Palestine, 1902-03. Lecturer, English Bible, Rutgers, 1910-13. Instructor, Hebrew, Rutgers. President, Class of 1891, after death of C. H. Strang. Biographer, Rutgers Alumni Association, 1906—. Biographer, Alumni, N. B. Seminary, 1909—. Member, Board of Education, R. C. A., 1904—. Vice President, do., 1913—. President, Zeta Psi Fraternity of North America, 1912. President, Rutgers Club of New Brunswick, 1913—. Trustee, Rutgers College, 1914—. Republican. Avocation, golf. Married, May 29th, 1894, at New Brunswick, N. J., Elizabeth Grier Strong (sister of S. W. Strong '91 and W. V. D. Strong '91), daughter of Rev. Selah W. Strong and Eleanor H. Van Deursen. Son, Anton Adolph Raven, Jr., born October 26th, 1895, in class of 1916 at Rutgers. Published: Old Testament Introduction, 1906, 1910 (F. H. Revell Co.); Hebrew Grammar, 1908 (printed for the Seminary); Biblical Hermeneutics, 1910 (printed for the Seminary); General Catalogue, Rutgers, 1766-1909; Biographical Record, New Brunswick Seminary, 1784-1911. Member, University Club, New York City, and American Geographical Society.

PATRICK AUGUSTINE RAY.

231-241 West 39th Street, New York City.

SON of Thomas Ray, farmer, and Elizabeth O'Keeffe. Born at Greenwich, N. Y., June 2d, 1871. Lived there until entering college. Won Brodhead Classical Prize. Class Day Poet. Phi Beta Kappa. Honorable mention for extra work in Latin and Greek. Graduated at Rutgers with A.B. Head teacher, St. Mary's Cathedral School, Trenton, N. J., 1891-92. Kyle Institute, Flushing, N. Y., 1892-93. Principal, public school, East Hampton, N. Y., 1893-95. Instructor, St. Peter's College, Jersey City, N. J., 1895-96. Master in Newark Academy, 1896-1902. With D. C. Heath & Co., publishers, 1902—. Roman Catholic. Independent Democrat. Married, in New York City, July 15th, 1905, Medora E. Loomis.

HOWARD AUGUSTUS REYNOLDS,

390 George Street, New Brunswick, N. J.

RESIDENCE when in college, New Brunswick, N. J. First Prize, Freshman Speaking. Hart English Literature Prize. Sophomore Orator. Junior Orator. Editor, Targum. Graduated at Rutgers with A.B. Residences since graduation: New Brunswick, Perth Amboy, and again New Brunswick. Lawyer. Alderman, New Brunswick, N. J. Roman Catholic. Democrat. Married.

HERBERT BENNETT ROBERTS,

Scotia, N. Y.

SON of James Roberts, merchant (died 1889, aged 75), and Rebecca Tibball. Born at Brooklyn, N. Y., October 18th, 1870. Residences: Brooklyn, N. Y., 1870-80; Kingston, N. Y., 1880-90; Brooklyn, N. Y.,

1890-94. Prepared at Kingston Free Academy. Decided for the ministry as life-work at very early age. United with the church at eight years of age. Active in religious work. President of the Boys' Department of the Y. M. C. A., Kingston, N. Y., 1884. In college, member of Glee Club, 1887-92; Senior editor, Targum. Delta Upsilon. Graduated at Rutgers with A.B. Graduated at N. B. Seminary, 1894. Licensed by Classis of Ulster, 1894. Ordained by Classis of Schoharie, 1894. Pastor, Reformed Church at Berne and Beaverdam, N. Y., 1894-1901; Scotia, Schenectady, N. Y., 1901—. Member, Board of Superintendents, N. B. Sem., 1897-99, 1900-01. President, Particular Synod of Albany, 1909. Republican. Avocations, fishing, hunting, golf. Married, at New Brunswick, N. J., September 12th, 1894, Laura Spencer Lindley, daughter of Samuel S. Lindley and Mary E. DeHart. Son, Herbert Spencer Roberts, born May 28th, 1895. In 1903 built new church in connection with remodeling of the old at an expense of about $20,000. Enjoyed three months' tour through Europe in fall of 1906. In 1908 visited California for ten weeks.

WALTER COOLEY SAMPSON,

220 Broadway, New York City.

SON of Ira Bradford Sampson, manufacturer, and Mary Cooley. Henry Sampson, a paternal ancestor, came over on Mayflower. Deborah Sampson at age of twenty assumed male attire and enlisted as a soldier in the Continental Army under name of Robert Shurtliffe. She later received a pension for her services. Father was captain 2d Massachusetts Heavy Artillery in Civil War—three years active service—one year in prison, from which he finally escaped—died 1890. Born at Springfield, Mass., September 22d, 1868. Residences before entering college: Springfield, Mass.; Albany, N. Y. Prepared at the Albany Military Academy and Albany High School. Won Freshman Declamation Prize. Sophomore Orator. President of Junior class. Member of Glee Club four years. Chi Psi. Graduated at Rutgers with A.B. Studied at Cambridge (Mass.) Episcopal Divinity School, 1892; New York Law School, 1893, and in law office of George Wilcox, New York City. Residences since graduation: Cambridge, Mass., 1892; Summit, N. J., 1892—. Assistant Minister and Lay Reader, Boston, 1892. Judge, City Criminal Court, Summit, N. J., 1899-1904. General practice of law, New York City. Admitted to New York Bar, 1894; District Court, 1898; U. S. Circuit Court, 1907. Member, Apollo Club, New York City (secretary and chairman Finance Committee), Bar Association of the City of New York, Military Order of the Loyal Legion, Highland Club of Summit. Episcopalian, Republican in national politics. Avocations: automobiling, has played on local foot-ball and base-ball teams, also tennis and golf. Married, at Summit, N. J., December 29th, 1897, Bertha Vincent Taylor, daughter of Alexander A. and Mary C. Taylor. Daughter, Marion Vincent Taylor, born May 15th, 1899.

EDWARD VAN VECHTEN SEARLE,

Died February 11th, 1907.

SON of Rev. Samuel Tomb Searle, A.B. (Union, 1845), N. B. Sem., 1848, clergyman, R. C. A., and Cornelia Fonda Southworth. Father and two uncles, grandfather and great uncle, great grandfather, ministers. Other grandfather an elder. In every generation at least one minister since Rev. William Searle, who preached in Bradford, England, in 1692. Born at Wyckoff, N. J., October 20th, 1869. Prepared at Sutphen & Statesir's Prep. School, Somerville, N. J., 1884-87. Associate author of "Lost Inheritance," '91 class play. Historian, Class Day. Delta Upsilon. Graduated at Rutgers with A.B. Graduated, N. B. Seminary, 1894. Licensed by Classis of Kingston, 1894. Ordained by Classis of Orange, 1894. Pastor, Reformed Church at Berea, N. Y., 1894-1900; Metuchen, N. J., 1900-07. Republican. Avocations, tennis, skating, horseman. Married, at Nineveh, N. Y., Mary A. Loughran, graduate of Oneonta, teacher of Latin in High School at Walden, N. Y. Relatives among Rutgers alumni: uncle, Rev. Jeremiah Searle, D.D. (1855); brother, Rev. J. Preston Searle, D.D. (1875).

JAMES COFFIN STOUT,

Walworth Avenue, Hartsdale, N. Y.

SON of Thomas Hance Stout, A.B. (Rutgers, 1855), stock broker, and Sarah Coffin. Born at Irvington, N. Y., November 25th, 1869. Residences before entering college: Irvington, N. Y., and New York City. Prepared at New Brunswick High School and Rutgers Prep. School, 1884-87. Sophomore Orator. Junior Orator. Varsity base-ball team, 1888-89. Glee Club. Poet, Class Day (resigned). Zeta Psi. Graduated at Rutgers with A.B. Teacher, Cutler School, New York City, 1891-94. Graduated, Princeton Theological Seminary, 1897. Licensed and ordained by Classis of New York, R. C. A., 1898. Pastor, Reformed Church, New Brighton, Staten Island, 1898-1902. Pastor, Flagler Memorial Presbyterian Church, St. Augustine, Florida, 1902-09. Post-graduate student, Princeton Seminary, 1909-10. Studied at University of Berlin, 1911-12. Acting Pastor, American Church, Berlin, 1912. Professor, Church History, Bible Teachers' Training School, New York City, 1912—. B.D. (Princeton, 1910). Republican. Avocation, golf. Married, at New Brunswick, N. J., May 10th, 1898, Phebe Elizabeth Van Antwerp, daughter of James and Phebe Van Antwerp. Relatives among Rutgers alumni: father, Thomas H. Stout '55; uncle, G. Lee Stout '59; uncle, Rev. Samuel E. Appleton, D.D., '52.

CLIFFORD HENRY STRANG,

Died August 30th, 1903.

SON of Edgar A. Strang (business), and Anna Suydam. Born at Montrose, N. Y., September 18th, 1867. Prepared at Rutgers Prep. School. Sophomore Orator. Junior Orator. President of Class of 1891 (1890-1903). Business manager, Glee Club. Business manager, varsity base-ball team. Varsity base-ball team, 1888-91; captain, do., 1891. Varsity foot-ball team, 1887. Captain, class foot-ball team, 1887. Captain, class base-ball team, 1889. Official referee, varsity foot-ball team. Delta Phi. Graduated at Rutgers with A.B. LL.B. (New York Law School, 1893). Studied also in office of Foster and Ackley, New York City. Residences since graduation: Montrose, N. Y., 1891-1901; Peekskill, N. Y., 1901-03. In Legal Department of Long Distance Telephone Co., 1894-1901, and of Mutual Life Insurance Co., 1901-03. Presbyterian. Republican.

WILLIAM VAN DEURSEN STRONG,

Oakland, N. J.

SON of Rev. Selah Woodhull Strong (A.B., Univ. N. Y., 1862; N. B. Sem., 1865), clergyman, R. C. A. (Died November 6th, 1884), and Eleanor Hendrickson Van Deursen. Father, grandfather (Rev. Thomas M. Strong, D.D., of Flatbush, N. Y.), and three uncles (Rev. Thomas C. Strong, D.D., N. B. Sem., 1845; Rev. J. Paschal Strong, A. B., Rutgers, 1845, N. B. Sem., 1850; Rev. Robert G. Strong, N. B. Sem., 1858), clergymen, R. C. A. Born at Accord, Ulster County, N. Y., April 28th, 1868. Residences: Accord, N. Y., 1868-70; West Troy, N. Y., 1870-85; Flatbush, N. Y., 1885-88; New Brunswick, N. J., 1888-95. Prepared at Albany Academy, 1877-85, and Rutgers Prep. School, 1885-87. Business manager. Targum, 1890-91. Secretary and treasurer, Rutgers Lacrosse Association. Lacrosse team, 1888-89. Scarlet Letter Editor. Vice president of class, Senior year. Zeta Psi. Graduated at Rutgers with A.B. Graduated, N. B. Seminary, 1894. Licensed by Classis of New Brunswick, 1894. Ordained by Classis of Poughkeepsie, 1895. Pastor, Reformed Church, Glenham, N. Y., 1895-1903. Assistant Pastor, Bergen Reformed Church, Jersey City, N. J., 1903-06. Pastor, First Congregational Church, Troy, N. Y., 1908-12. Pastor, Reformed Church, Oakland, N. J., 1912—. Progressive. Married, at Jersey City, N. J., January 20th, 1909, Grace Georgianna Kydd, daughter of Charles Kydd. Children: Eleanor Ormond Strong, born May 4th, 1910; Selah Strong, born February 16th, 1913. Relatives among Rutgers alumni: great grandfather, William Van Deursen, M.D., 1809; great uncle, William Van Deursen, 1843; uncle, J. Paschal Strong, 1845; brother, Selah W. Strong, 1891; brother-in-law, John H. Raven, 1891.

ERASTMUS AMES WHITENACK,

Peru, Neb.

SON of John Augustus Whitenack and Agnes Ames. Born at Far Hills, N. J., December 19th, 1867. Prepared at Bedminster Academy, N. J. Varsity foot-ball team; captain, do., 1888. D. K. E. Graduated at Rutgers with A.B. Studied at Sauvem College of Languages. Residences since graduation: Pekin, Ill., 1891-93; Holland, Mich., 1893-97; Peru, Neb., 1897—.

Teacher. Reformed Church. Republican. Married, at Holland, Mich., June 30th, 1896, Sarah Gertrude Alcott, daughter of Mrs. Sarah Alcott. Son, Theodore Whitenack, born March 6th, 1903.

GILLET WYNKOOP,

151 Clifton Avenue, Newark, N. J.

SON of Mynderse Wynkoop, farmer and surveyor, and Mary Elizabeth Schoonmaker. Born at Saugerties, N. Y., December 3d, 1865. Residences before entering college: Saugerties, and Catskill, N. Y. Prepared at Catskill Academy. Won James Suydam Prize in Natural Science. Editor, Scarlet Letter. Phi Beta Kappa. Delta Upsilon. Graduated at Rutgers with A.B. Residences since graduation: Hudson, Ohio, 1891-92; Warren, Ohio, 1892-93; Brooklyn, N. Y., 1893-97; Hohokus, N. J., 1897-1902; Newburgh, N. Y., 1902-08; Brooklyn, N. Y., 1908-10; Providence, R. I., 1910-11; Brooklyn, N. Y., 1911-12; Newark, N. J., 1913—. Instructor in Languages and Chemistry, Polytechnic Institute, Brooklyn, N. Y., 1893-97. Manufacturing and consulting chemist, 1897—. B.Sc. (Polytechnic Institute, 1894). Reformed Church. Independent in politics. Avocations: motor-boating, tennis. Married, at Washington, D. C., January 1st, 1913, Gura Pollock, daughter of Edie Stewart Pollock and Sarah DuBois. Relatives among Rutgers alumni: cousin, Richard Wynkoop, 1849; brother, Rev. Asa Wynkoop, 1887.

CLASSICAL NON-GRADUATES

JAMES EGBERT BEACH,

Died March 1st, 1897.

SON of Augustus R. Beach, M.D., and Hannah Maria Willis. Born at Caldwell, N. J., February 26th, 1864. Residences before entering college: Newark, N. J., and Harrison, N. J. Prepared at Peddie Institute, Hightstown, N. J. Organized First Baptist Church of Harrison, N. J. Through his efforts ground procured and church building erected. Crozier Theological Seminary, four years. Studied at Columbia two years. Ordained at Harrison, N. J., 1890. Special student at Rutgers, 1890-91, in History, Political Science and Mental Philosophy. Chi Phi. Pastor, First Baptist Church, Harrison, N. J.; First Baptist Church, Auburn, Cal.; Baptist Church at Chester, Vermont. Republican. Married, at Harrison, N. J., July 13th, 1892, Lucy McClure, daughter of James and Sarah McClure. Widow lives at Harrison, N. J.

ALFRED DUNCOMBE,

Bogota, N. J.

SON of Rev. Francis Duncombe, graduate of University College, London, pastor of Congregational Church at Stiracombe, England (studied and practiced homeopathy in Brooklyn and Jersey City twenty years), and Naomi Maria Weston. Born at Stroud, Gloucestershire, England, November 26th, 1860. Residences before entering college: Salisbury, Wiltshire, England, 1860-69; Brooklyn, N. Y., and Jersey City, N. J. Learned trade of electrical instrument maker and took a course of mechanical engineering at Cooper Union Night School. Had two remarkable deliverances from death—at 14 from drowning in Gowanus Bay, Brooklyn, N. Y., and at 19 from fire in Weston Electric Building, Church street, New York City. Six months after the latter event was converted and made a public confession of faith. Prepared at Rutgers Prep. School, 1884-87. Member of Class of 1891, Rutgers, in Classical Course through Freshman and part of Sophomore year. Graduated at New Brunswick Seminary, 1893. Licensed by South Classis of Bergen, 1893. Ordained by North Classis of Long Island, 1893. Pastor, Reformed Church at Manhasset, Long Island, 1893-1907, and at Bogota, N. J., 1907—. Secretary, Y. M. C. A., New Brunswick, N. J., summer of 1887. Preacher at Throop Avenue Mission, New Brunswick, N. J., 1885-88. Assistant pastor, Clinton Avenue Reformed Church, Newark, N. J., 1890-91. Independent Republican. Avocations: tennis and golf, work in machine shop. Married, at Yonkers, N. Y., January 7th, 1902, to Anna Amelia Sutherland, daughter of Joseph and Anna Sutherland. Children: Miriam Sutherland Duncombe, born July 4th, 1903; Margaret Weston Duncombe, born January 13th, 1905; Alfred Leslie Duncombe, born August 26th, 1906; Dorothy Greaves Duncombe, born October 30th, 1907, died December 25th, 1907; Harmon Greaves Duncombe, born May 1st, 1909.

CHARLES ESSELSTYN,

The Republican, Hudson, N. Y.

SON of Cornelius Esselstyn, A.B. (Rutgers, 1852), lawyer (died July 3d, 1881), and Mary Thong Livingston Van Deusen. Mother is great, great granddaughter of Chancellor Robert Livingston. Born at Hudson, N. Y., September 18th, 1869. Prepared at Hudson Academy and Rutgers Prep. School. Special student at Rutgers two years. Varsity foot-ball team. Delta Phi. Studied at Columbia Law School and in office of Roger Foster, New York City. Admitted to Bar at Baltimore, Md., 1894. Residences since leaving Rutgers: New York City, 1889-92; Baltimore, Md., 1892-96; Hudson, N. Y., 1896—. Editor of Hudson Republican. Secretary of Republican County Committee. Secretary, Judiciary Committee, State Legislature, 1904-06. Reformed Church. Republican. Avocations: golf, bowling, dogs, chickens. Married, at Hingham, Mass., November 23d, 1893, Helen Pierce, daughter of Rev. Theodore D. Pierce, D.D., Universalist clergyman, and Martha Stanley. Relatives among Rutgers alumni: father, Cornelius Esselstyn, 1852; uncle, Herman V. Esselstyn, 1856; uncle, Rev. J. Romeyn Berry, D.D., 1847.

WORTHINGTON SEYMOUR FARLEY, JR.

Died August 19th, 1892.

SON of Worthington Smith Farley, wholesale and retail hardware merchant at Fort Plain, N. Y., and Helen Hall Moyer, daughter of John H. Moyer, president Fort Plain National Bank. Mother an authoress, who under nom-de-plume of "Ernest Gilmore" wrote over 1,500 stories and 15 books. Father's mother was a Sherman, descended from Roger Sherman. Worthington S. Farley, Jr., was the great grandson of Dr. Jonathan Sherman of Utica, N. Y., and cousin of Vice President James S. Sherman. Born at Fort Plain, N. Y., July 18th, 1869. Prepared at Clinton Liberal Institute and Rutgers Prep. School. Member of Class of 1891 at Rutgers during Freshman and Sophomore years. Member class foot-ball team. Delta Phi. Merchant, Fort Plain, N. Y. Founder and president, Fort Plain Club. Senior deacon, Fort Plain Lodge, F. & A. M. Deacon, Reformed Church. Democrat. Relatives among Rutgers alumni: brothers, John M. Farley, 1886, and Robert E. Farley, 1892.

RICHARD JONES GEISINGER.

Died January 29th, 1890.

SON of John W. Geisinger and Adeline Jones. Born at Shiloh, N. J., September 5th, 1866. Prepared at Shiloh Academy and South Jersey Institute, Bridgeton, N. J.; also studied Alfred University, N. Y. Member of Class of 1891 at Rutgers in Classical Course during Junior year, until his death. Beta Theta Pi. Married, at Newport, N. J., Eleanor Joslin, daughter of William Franklin Joslin and Ruth Ann Joslin. Mrs. R. J. Geisinger is now Mrs. Julien C. Edgerly, 10 Revere Place, Medford, Mass.

SELAH WOODHULL STRONG,

New Brunswick, N. J.

SON of Rev. Selah Woodhull Strong, clergyman, R. C. A., and Eleanor Hendrickson Van Deursen. For ancestry, see account of brother, W. V. D. Strong. Born at Accord, Ulster Co., N. Y., November 22d, 1866. Residences before entering college: Accord, N. Y., 1866-70; West Troy, N. Y., 1870-85; Flatbush, L. I., 1885-88. Prepared at Albany Academy, 1877-85, and Rutgers Prep. School, 1886-87. Member Class of 1891 at Rutgers in Classical Course through Freshman, Sophomore and two-thirds of Junior year. President of class, Freshman year. Zeta Psi. Residences since leaving college: New Brunswick, N. J., 1890-92; New York City, 1892-1902; Denton, Texas, 1902-03; South Orange, N. J., 1903-06; Southbridge, Mass., 1906-10; Sabbath Day Point, N. Y., 1910-12; New Brunswick, N. J., 1912—. With New York Central Railroad Co., 1890-1902; East Orange Bank, 1903-06; American Optical Co., 1906-10; Interwoven Stocking Co., 1912—. Reformed Church. Republican. Relatives among Rutgers alumni: see brother, W. V. D. Strong, 1891.

ELON MOEK WAGGONER.

Died August 14th, 1910.

SON of Peter G. Waggoner, farmer, and Mrs. Waggoner (née Livingston). Born at Bethlehem, N. Y., December 13th, 1868. Lived at Guilderland Centre, N. Y., until entering college. Prepared at the Rutgers Prep. School. Member of Class of 1891 at Rutgers in Classical Course during Freshman year. Zeta Psi. Residence since leaving college, Albany, N. Y. Mail carrier. Clerk in post office. Conductor on trolley cars. Reformed Church. Republican. Avocation, base-ball. Married, at Albany, N. Y., June, 1891, Blanche Estelle McKinstry. Children: Anna Barbara Waggoner, born April 16th, 1891; Peter G. Waggoner, born January 18th, 1898; Perl Marie Waggoner, born February 12th, 1908. Oldest daughter is now Mrs. John I. Lussier, 73 Bradford street, Albany, N. Y.

SCIENTIFIC SECTION

JOHN CHARLES AYDELOTT,

339 Buena Vista Avenue, Pekin, Ill.

SON of John C. Aydelott, farmer, and Adelia Broadwell. It is tradition in the Aydelott family that the original Aydelotts came to this country with Lafayette. Born at Pekin, Ill., December 18th, 1868. Prepared at Pekin High School, graduating with first honor in 1887. In college, Senior Mathematical Prize. Phi Beta Kappa. Fourth Honor. Varsity foot-ball team, 1888-90. Captain, class foot-ball team, 1889. Adjutant, Battalion. Delta Upsilon. Graduated at Rutgers with B.Sc. Residences since graduation: Paterson, N. J., 1891-92; Pekin, Ill., 1892—. City engineer, Pekin, Ill., 1892-95. Secretary, Smith-Hippen Co. (grain). 1895-1906; president, do., 1906—. C.E. (Rutgers, 1895). Member Consistory Reformed Church, 1906. Member Board, Congregational Church, 1906-11. Superintendent of Sunday School, do., 1911—. Congregationalist. Republican. Avocations: shooting, driving horses, raising livestock. Married, October 16th, 1895, Mary Louise Smith, daughter of Dietrich Conrad Smith and Carrie Pieper Smith. Children: John Charles Aydelott, Jr., born March 19th, 1898; Mary Aydelott, born August 2d, 1900; Ernest Smith Aydelott, born October 13th, 1902.

PHILANDER BETTS, 3d,

738 Broad Street. Newark, N. J.

SON of Philander Betts, Jr., heating, ventilating and sanitary engineer, and Sarah Taulman Demarest. Father's family one of the original settlers in 1637 of Norwalk, Conn. Mother descended from David Demarest, the original (Dutch) Bergen County settler. Born at Nyack, N. Y., May 28th, 1868. Residences before entering college: Nyack, N. Y.; Hackensack, N. J.; Oakland, Cal.; Denver, Col.; Brooklyn, N. Y., and Hackensack, N. J. Prepared at Hackensack Academy, Grammar and High Schools, Mount Hermon (Mass.) Boys' School. Secretary of class, Junior year. Sergeant-Major in Battalion. Beta Theta Pi. Graduated at Rutgers with B.Sc. Post-Graduate George Washington University, Washington, D. C. Residences since leaving college: Newark, N. J., 1891-92; Philadelphia, 1892-93; Newark, N. J., 1892-93; Hazleton, Penn., 1893; Pittsburg, Penn., 1893; Mahanoy City, Penn., 1894-95; Washington, D. C., 1895-1910; Montclair, N. J., 1910—. Construction engineer, Westinghouse Electric Co. Electrical engineer, Washington Navy Yard. Mechanical engineer, Navy Department, Bureau of Yards and Docks. Assistant Professor of Electrical Engineering, George Washington University. Chief engineer, Board of Public Utility Commissioners for the State of New Jersey, 1910—. E.E. (Columbia Univ., 1903). Secretary, Illumination Committee, Inauguration Presidents Roosevelt and Taft, 1905 and 1909. Chairman Washington section American Institute of Electrical Engineers, 1907-10. Secretary of local committee entertaining European Delegates to International Electrical Congress, 1903. Originally Reformed, now Presbyterian. Republican of progressive tendencies. Avocations: sailing and automobiling. Married, at Allegheny, Penn., November 19th, 1896, Nannie Bell Hammer, daughter of J. B. Hammer and Martha Ann Shirk. Son, Philander Hammer Betts, born November 17th, 1897. Relative among Rutgers alumni: brother, Eugene Betts, 1892. Prepared many scientific reports. From 1900 to 1910 engaged in consulting engineering work and preparation of reports as an expert before various government departments.

ELIHU CALVIN BRYAN,

Shekomeko, N. Y.

SON of Calvin C. Bryan, farmer, and Anna M. Hammond. Born at Shekomeko, N. Y., May 24th, 1870. Prepared at Seymour Smith Academy, Pine Plains, N. Y., graduating 1887. Bradley Mathematical Prize at Rutgers. Second graduation honor. Phi Beta Kappa. Delta Upsilon. Graduated at Rutgers with B.Sc. Residence since graduation, Shekomeko, N. Y. Farmer. Presbyterian. Republican. Married, at Patterson, N. Y., November 24th, 1904, H. Grace Adams. Children: Helen E. Bryan, born April 6th, 1906; Anna H. Bryan, born February 24th, 1908; Margery Louise Bryan, born June 24th, 1910; Phoebe Catherine Bryan, born May 13th, 1913.

JOSEPH COMPTON CASTNER,

Fort Harrison, Helena, Montana.

SON of Cornelius Wyckoff Castner and Kathernine Cosgrove. Born at New Brunswick, N. J., November 18th, 1869. Prepared at New Brunswick public schools. First Myron W. Smith Prize, Sophomore Orator. First Prize, Junior Orator. Sergeant, Rutgers Corps. Master Orator. Graduated at Rutgers with B.Sc. Graduated at U. S. Infantry and Cavalry School, 1895. Army officer. Captain. Residences since graduation: Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, September-December, 1891; Boise Barracks, Idaho, December, 1891-September, 1893; Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, September, 1893-October, 1895; Boise Barracks, Idaho, October, 1895-October, 1896; Fort Sheridan, Illinois, October, 1896-March, 1898; Alaska, March, 1898-April, 1899; Washington, D. C., April-June, 1899; San Francisco, Cal., June-August, 1899; Philippines, August, 1899-May, 1900; Washington, D. C., May, 1900-April, 1901; Fort McPherson, Georgia, April-July, 1901; San Francisco, Cal., July-August, 1901; Philippines, August, 1901-January, 1902; Texas, January, 1902-June, 1903; Philippines, June, 1903-July, 1905; Kentucky, July, 1905-February, 1908; Fort Yellowstone, Wyoming, March-November, 1908; Honolulu, November, 1908-May, 1910; Fort McDowell, Cal., May, 1910-July, 1912; Fort Harrison, Montana, July, 1912—. Married, at San Francisco, Cal., August 3d, 1901, Ada White. Son, Lawrence Varsi Castner, born May 1st, 1902.

PAULL JEWILL CHALLEN,

Fishkill-on-Hudson, N. Y.

SON of Howard Challen, M.A., publisher, and Grace Dunstan Carter. On father's side, related to Governor Bradford of Massachusetts. Born in Philadelphia, Penn., May 22d, 1870. Residences before entering college: Philadelphia, Penn.; Edgewater Park, N. J.. Prepared at Furman Prep., Beverly, N. J., and Rutgers Prep. School (5 years). Always fond of outdoor sports, sailing, fishing, hunting, etc. At Rutgers: Champion tennis doubles, 1888-89. Second, tennis singles, 1888-89. Varsity foot-ball team, 1890. First Lieut. Rutgers Corps. Junior Orator. Delta Upsilon. Graduated at Rutgers with B.Sc. Residences since graduation; New York City, one year; Matteawan, N. Y., since. Draftsman, Henry W. Bulkley. Assistant general manager, Green Fuel Economizer Co. Superintendent, Fioranda Hat Works. Vestryman, St. Luke's Episcopal Church. Director, Dutchess Hat Works. Director, Southern Dutchess Country Club. For the best man, usually Republican. Avocation, motoring. Married, at Fishkill-on-Hudson, N. Y., September 28th, 1904, Jennie Tompkins. Relative among Rutgers alumni: brother, Rev. Thurston W. Challen, 1887. Always glad to see the boys.

ROBERT JOSEPH DOUGHERTY,

Y. M. C. A., White Plains, N. Y.

SON of James Dougherty, superintendent Delaware & Raritan Canal, and Julia C. O'Brien. Born at Trenton, N. J., July 1st, 1871. Residences before entering college: Trenton and New Brunswick, N. J. Prepared at Rutgers Prep. School (four years). Sergeant, Rutgers Corps. Graduated at Rutgers with B.Sc. Residences since graduation: Pittsburg, Penn.; Ebensburg, Penn.; Buffalo, N. Y.; Erie, Penn.; Sault Ste Marie, Mich.; Philadelphia, Penn.; Canal Zone, Panama (two years); Rochester, N. Y.; Fairport, N. Y.; Macedon, N. Y.; New York City; White Plains, N. Y. County Engineer, Middlesex Co., N. J., nine years. Assistant engineer of construction. Contracting engineer. C.E. (Rutgers, 1902). Catholic. Democrat. Relative among Rutgers men: brother, James P. Dougherty, Jr., 1891.

HARRY WILLIAMS FULLER,

Care of H. M. Bylesby & Co., Insurance Exchange, Chicago.

SON of Charles Wesley Fuller, lawyer, and Matilda Borden Williams. Born in New York City, June 14th, 1868. Residences before entering college: New York City and Bayonne, N. J. Prepared at public schools, Bayonne, N. J., New Jersey State Model School, Trenton, N. J., and Stevens Prep. School, Hoboken, N. J. Class secretary, Senior year. Class Day Committee. Chi Psi. Graduated at Rutgers with B.Sc. Residences since graduation: Bay-orine, N. J.; Paterson, N. J.; San Antonio, Texas; Washington, D. C.; Bluefields, W. Va.; Chicago, Ill. Assistant superintendent construction, Paterson, N. J. Superintendent, Alamo Electric Street Railway, San Antonio, Texas. Superintendent and assistant to general manager, North Jersey Street Railway Co. General manager, Washington Railway & Electric Co. Vice president and general manager, Appalachian Power Co., Bluefields, W. Va. Republican. Married, in New York City, October 16th, 1901, Mira B. Shepard.

THOMAS MANDEVILLE HOPPER,

Suffern, N. Y.

SON of Albert Cornelius Hopper and Mary Burhans. Born at Paterson, N. J., December 26th, 1868. Prepared at public and private schools, Paterson, N. J. Class treasurer, 1889-90. Captain, class foot-ball team, 1890. Member, varsity lacrosse and foot-ball teams, 1888-90. Class Day Committee, 1891. D. K. E. Graduated at Rutgers with B.Sc. Residences since graduation: Hillburn, N. Y., 1891-98; Dawson City, Yukon Ter., 1898-99; Skagway, Alaska, 1899-1900; Pittsburg and St. Louis, 1900-01; Hillburn, N. Y., 1901—. Draftsman at Hillburn, N. Y., 1891-98. Mining and prospecting, 1898-99. Assistant to master mechanic of W. P. & Y. Route, 1899-1900. Estimating for Pressed Steel Car Co. and American Car and Foundry Co., 1900-01. Chief engineer, Ramapo Iron Works, 1901—. Reformed Church. Democrat. Avocations: golf, photography. Married, at Suffern, N. Y., September, 1906, Mary Washburn, daughter of Thomas Nelson Washburn and Caroline Straut Washburn. Children: Margaret Jorolomon Burhans Hopper, born May, 1907; Thomas Washburn Hopper, born December, 1908; Robert Reading Hopper, born June, 1910; George Richard Hopper, born October, 1911.

SAMUEL ARTHUR JOHNSON,

State Agricultural College, Fort Collins, Col.

SON of Charles Henry Johnson, farmer, and Abigail Emily Johnson. Born at Morristown, N. J., December 13th, 1867. Prepared at Morristown High School, 1884-87. Business manager, Scarlet Letter, 1891. President, Y. M. C. A. Captain Company A, Rutgers Battalion. D. K. E. Graduated at Rutgers with B.Sc. Residences since graduation: Frankfort, Ky., 1891; Ithaca, N. Y., 1892; Pekin, Ill., 1892-93; Elkhart, Ill., 1893-95; Denver, Col., 1895-1902; Fort Collins, Col., 1902—. Teacher of Mathematics at Ithaca and Pekin. Superintendent of Schools at Elkhart. Teacher of Mathematics and Science, East Denver High School. Assistant in Geology and Associate Professor of Geology, State Agricultural College, Fort Collins, Col. Acting Dean of Faculty, 1911—. Member, Entomological Society of Washington, American Association of Economic Entomologists, Entomological Society of America. Director. Northern Colorado Teachers' Association. Presbyterian. Independent in politics. Avocation, entomology. Married, at Denver, Col., January 15th, 1896, May Abigail Bice, daughter of B. F. Bice and Chloe Bertha Owen. Children: Alice Mary Johnson, born February 27th, 1897; Miriam Abigail Johnson, born April 11th, 1901; Frederick Bice Johnson, born July 2d, 1905. Wrote bulletins and articles on entomological subjects.

GEORGE ANDREWS MITCHELL,

Vineland, N. J.

SON of Walter T. Mitchell, farmer, and Rebecca M. Andrews. Born at Delhi, N. Y., May 10th, 1868. Residences before entering college: Delhi, N. Y.; Binghamton, N. Y.; Vineland, N. J. Prepared at Vineland public schools. Sergeant, Rutgers Corps. Graduated at Rutgers with B.Sc. Had Fellowship at Wesleyan University, Middletown, Conn. Residences since graduation: Middletown and Hartford, Conn., 1903-04; travelled, 1905; Vineland, N. J., 1906—. University Extension Lecturer. Farmer. Demonstrator of the Society for Farming Demonstration. Director, School Board, 1887-89. Master, Pomona Grange, 1903-04. Master, Vineland Grange, 1908-09. President, Farmers' Club, 1907, 1910-12. Independent, with leaning toward Socialism. Avocation, camping out with family. Married, at Vineland, N. J., September 18th, 1902, Daisy L. Gilbert, daughter of William M. and Mary L. Gilbert. Children: Gilbert Mitchell, born July 7th, 1903; Mary R. Mitchell, born October 29th, 1904; Anna L. Mitchell, born January 17th, 1908. Relative among Rutgers alumni: Warren S. Mitchell, 1894. Performed experimental work for U. S. Dept. of Agriculture. Organized local co-operative buying and selling Grange Experiment Committee, Farming Demonstration Society, and Agricultural Reclamation Co.

MARCUS CALDWELL SEARS,

Blooming Grove, N. Y.

SON of Benjamin Chandler Sears, A.B. (Rutgers, 1857), farmer, and Phebe Ellen Howell. Born at Blooming Grove, N. Y., October 10th, 1867. Prepared at Siglar's School, Newburgh, N. Y. (three years). Class treasurer, 1891, Senior year. Targum editor. Second Lieutenant, Company B, Rutgers Corps. Bradley Mathematical Prize. Valedictorian of class (first scientific student to take this honor). Zeta Psi. Graduated at Rutgers with B.Sc. Residence since graduation, Blooming Grove, N. Y. Farmer. Director and secretary, Blooming Grove Grange Co. Director and treasurer, Blooming Grove Store Co. Member, County Committee of Orange Co. Y. M. C. A. since organization in 1901, and chairman since 1905. Superintendent, Congregational Sunday School, 1895—. Recording Secretary, Orange Co. Sunday School

Association, 1900-06. Congregational. Democrat. Married, at Chester, N. Y., November 4th, 1903, Jane Tuthill Durland. Son: Benjamin Durland Sears, born February 3d, 1905. Relative among Rutgers alumni: father, Benjamin C. Sears, 1857.

FREDERICK SEYMOUR SMITH,

Trust Company Building, Morristown, N. J.

SON of Zenas Henry Smith, farmer, and Hannah Day Fairchild. The Smiths have occupied the homestead since 1797. Born in Morris Township, Morris County, N. J., October 8th, 1866. Prepared at Morristown High School (three years). First Lieutenant, Rutgers Corps. Beta Theta Pi. Phi Beta Kappa (never initiated). Graduated at Rutgers with B.Sc. Residences since graduation: Morris Township, 14 years; Hanover Township, 7 years. Civil engineer, private practice. Engineer, Morristown & Erie R. R. Engineer, New Jersey & Penn. R. R. C.E. (Rutgers, 1898). Township Collector, Morris Township, 1897-1903. Presbyterian. Progressive Republican. Married, at Monroe, N. J., April 23, 1905, Evelyn Mortimer Burnet. Children: Evelyn Elizabeth Smith, born August 21st, 1906; Seymour Fairchild Smith, born February 3d, 1909; John Burnet Smith, born June 21st, 1911.

ISAAC MABBETT SUTTON,

223 Security Building, Los Angeles, Cal.

SON of Franklin Sutton and Olive Edith Peckham. Born at South Millbrook, N. Y., March 19th, 1867. Residences before entering college: South Millbrook, N. Y.; Mabbetsville, N. Y.; Moore's Mills, N. Y.; Poughkeepsie, N. Y. Prepared at Miley's School, Poughkeepsie, 1880-85, and Rutgers Prep. School, 1885-87. Captain, Rutgers Corps. Prize marksman, do. Delta Upsilon. Graduated at Rutgers with B.Sc. Studied at Eastman's Business College, Poughkeepsie. Residences since graduation: Poughkeepsie, N. Y., 1891-93; New York City, 1893-97; Flushing, L. I., 1897-98; Bayside, L. I., 1898-1901; Hastings-on-Hudson, N. Y., 1901-07; Yonkers, N. Y., 1907-09; Los Angeles, Cal., 1909—. Secretary-treasurer and director, Rossiter, MacGovern & Co. Secretary, treasurer and director, Citizens' Light and Power Co., Far Rockaway, N. Y. Secretary, Queens Borough Electric Light and Power Co., Far Rockaway, N. Y. Secretary, treasurer and director, Liberty Light and Power Co., Liberty, N. Y. Treasurer and Director, Grand Prize Copper Co. Treasurer and Director, The Verde Queen Copper Co. of Arizona. Secretary, treasurer, director and general manager, Jerome Verde Copper Co. Formerly Elder, First Reformed Church, Hastings-on-Hudson, N. Y., and Member, Board of Education, R. C. A. Now Trustee, First Presbyterian Church, Los Angeles, Cal. Republican. Married, at Mount Vernon, N. Y., June 2d, 1897, Helen Sanford Harris, daughter of Abram C. and Sarah Marie Harris. Son: William Franklin Sutton, born April 25th, 1899.

ARTHUR BENJAMIN TOTTEN,

Middlebush, N. J.

SON of Benjamin Smith Totten, school teacher, captain in Civil War, sheriff of Somerset County, N. J., merchant, and Mary Louisa Van Doren. Mother, daughter of Rev. J. Addison Van Doren, Rutgers 1835, pastor at Middlebush, N. J., 1838-66. Born at Middlebush, N. J., May 5th, 1869. Residences before entering college: Middlebush, N. J.; Somerville, N. J.; New Brunswick, N. J.; Middlebush, N. J. Prepared at Rutgers Prep. School. Sergeant, Rutgers Corps. D. K. E. Graduated at Rutgers with B.Sc. Residences after graduation: New York City, 1891-93; Chicago, Ill., 1893-94; Schenectady, N. Y., 1894-97; Middlebush, N. J., 1897—. New York Edison Co., 1891-93. New York Electric Launch and Navigation Co., New York and Chicago, 1893-94. General Electric Co., 1894-97. Electric engineering and construction work in New York and vicinity, 1897-1909. Retired from active business in fall of 1909. Reformed Church. Interested in gardening and poultry raising for pleasure and profit. Married, at Newark, N. J., January 9th, 1904, Bertha Blackwell Wilson, daughter of G. Prall Wilson and Julia Van Dolah of Lambertville, N. J. Children: Arthur Benjamin Totten, Jr., born January 21st, 1907; Julia Van Dolah Totten, born March 29th, 1910.

CORNELIUS DELOS VREELAND,

Upper Montclair, N. J.

SON of J. Pierson Vreeland and Margaretta M. Cruikshank. Born at Little Falls, N. J. Residence before entering college, Paterson, N. J. Prepared at Paterson public school and Rutgers Prep. School. At Rutgers, won Liebig Prize. Ivy Orator. D. K. E. Graduated at Rutgers with B.Sc. Residences since graduation: Little Falls, N. J.; Brooklyn, N. Y.; Chicago Heights, Ill. Chemist for Sterling Iron Co. Assistant chemist, Nichols Chemical Co. President, Illinois Chemical Co. President, Vreeland Chemical Co. Congregational. Independent in politics. Avocations: photography, automobiling, fishing. Married, at Brooklyn, N. Y., September 16th, 1896, Edith Secor Higgins. Children: J. Pierson Vreeland, born August 31st, 1898; Cornelius Delos Vreeland, Jr., born June 24th, 1903; Roger Secor Vreeland, born July 12th, 1907.

EDWARD LASKY WELLING.

Died February 19th, 1897.

SON of Thomas Welling, farmer, director First National Bank of Warwick, N. Y., and Caroline Van Duzer. Born at Warwick, N. Y., May 5th, 1868. Prepared at Warwick Institute and Rutgers Prep. School, 1886-87. Varsity base-ball team, 1888-91. Varsity foot-ball team, 1891. Senior Class Historian for 1892 Scarlet Letter. Delta Phi. Graduated at Rutgers with B.Sc. Residences after graduation: Newburgh, N. Y., 1891-93; Denver, Col., 1893-95; travelling in south, with long stay at Asheville, N. C., 1896; Colorado Springs, Col., Albuquerque, N. M., and Phoenix, Ariz., 1896-97. With Kilmer Manufacturing Co. of Newburgh, N. Y., 1891-93. Too close confinement at chemical work undermined his health. Reformed Church. Republican. Avocations: base-ball, foot-ball, tennis. Died at Phoenix, Ariz. Sister, Mrs. A. W. Edsall, Warwick, N. Y.

SCIENTIFIC NON-GRADUATES

SAMUEL NELSON ATWATER.

Died April 13th, 1907.

SON of Samuel Atwater, merchant, and Charlotte Carter. Born at Newark, N. J., June 24th, 1869. Prepared at Newark Academy. At Rutgers in Class of 1891, taking Scientific course during Freshman year. Zeta Psi. Member of firm of Atwater & Carter, wholesale and retail grocers, Newark, N. J., 1888-94. President, do., 1894-1905. Treasurer, St. Stephen's Episcopal Church several years. Governor, Sons of American Revolution of New Jersey. Member, Atlantic Lodge, Masons, N. Y. Member, Damascus Commandery, Knight Templars, Newark, N. J. Married, January 10th, 1893, at Newark, N. J., Katherine de Nyse Williamson, daughter of Cornelius T. and Helen S. Williamson. Children: De Nyse Williamson Atwater, born August 14th, 1894; Kenneth Nelson Atwater, born February 11th, 1896; Donald Williamson Atwater, born October 6th, 1900. Died at home after a long illness. Address of widow, Newark, N. J.

JACOB LEWIS BAUER,

130 Broad Street, Elizabeth, N. J.

SON of George Bauer, farmer, and Elizabeth Peal. Born at Linden, N. J. November 18th, 1868. Residences before entering college: Linden, N. J.; Elizabeth, N. J. Prepared at Dr. J. H. Lansley's School, Elizabeth, and John Young's School, Elizabeth, N. J. Prepared in one year for entrance and also for Freshman year work, entering Sophomore year. Member of Class of 1891, taking Scientific course at Rutgers through Sophomore year. Chi Phi. Residences since leaving college: Sewickley, Penn., one year; Dunkirk, N. Y., one year; Plainfield, N. J., three years; Irvington, N. Y., one year; Elizabeth, N. J., since. Assistant County Engineer, Union Co., N. J. Engineer, do. Engineer for three boroughs and two townships in Union County. Presbyterian. Avocations: golf, base-ball. Married, April 14th, 1904, Alberta Louise, daughter of Henry and Louise Krouse. Children: Catherine Krouse Bauer, born May 11th, 1905; Elizabeth Louise Bauer, born June 28th, 1911. Relative among Rutgers alumni: George W. Bauer, 1904.

ALBERT ALLEN CAMPBELL,

Delburne, Alberta, Canada.

SON of Rev. James Campbell, Congregational minister, and Mary Jane Aitken. Born at Brampton, Peel Co., Ontario, Canada, June 2d, 1870. Residence before entering college, Olympia, Wash. Prepared at Olympia (Wash.) High School and Strilacoom (Wash.) Congregational Academy. In Class of 1891 at Rutgers, taking Scientific course during Freshman year. Residences since leaving college: various places in United States, Canada, England, Scotland and Ireland. Insurance broker and U. S. Civil Service employee. Congregationalist. Avocation, farming. Married, at Vancouver, Wash., September 15th, 1891, Harriet Smith. Children: Elizabeth Hope Campbell, born October 30th, 1904; Albert Hugh Campbell, born March 10th, 1906.

JOHN DE WITT CRUICKSHANKS.

Died December 17th, 1890.

SON of Rev. James Cruickshanks, pastor of Reformed Church at Metuchen, N. J., 1882-87, and Anna Maria DeWitt. Maternal great-uncle, Rev. John DeWitt, D.D., LL.D., Rutgers 1838, Professor, N. B. Sem., 1863-92. Born at Spencer, Mass., July 12th, 1869. Residences before entering college: Webster Groves, Mo.; Rockford, Ill.; Kenosha, Wis.; Metuchen, N. J.; Ovid, N. Y. Member of Class of 1891 at Rutgers, taking Scientific course, part of Freshman year. Studied at Hobart College, 1888-89, and Cornell University, 1889-90. Residence at Spencer, Mass., 1889-90. Reformed Church until 1887, then, Presbyterian. Died at sea. Sister, Miss Mary S. Cruickshanks, Montclair, N. J.

JAMES P. DOUGHERTY,

Room 227, Post Office Department, Washington, D. C.

SON of James Dougherty, superintendent of Delaware & Raritan Canal, and Julia C. O'Brien. Born at Princeton, N. J., March 16th, 1871. Residences before entering college: Princeton, N. J.; Kingston, N. J.; Trenton, N. J.; New Brunswick, N. J. Prepared at Trenton and New Brunswick public schools and Rutgers Prep. School. In Class of 1891 at Rutgers, taking Scientific course during Freshman year. Foreman of railroad construction work. Roman Catholic. Democrat. Relative among Rutgers alumni: brother, Robert J. Dougherty, 1891. In Classified Civil Service, U. S. Government Post Office Department, 1911—.

HIRAM AUGUSTUS FARRAND,

44 North Fourth Street, Philadelphia, Penn.

SON of Hiram Farrand (principal of public school at Princeton, N. J.; captain, 1st Regiment New York Volunteer Engineers; civil engineer at Vineland and Sea Isle City, N. J.), and Harriet Pamela Bacon. Father a descendant of early settlers of Newark and other sections of northern New Jersey. Born at Vineland, N. J., December 10th, 1868. Prepared at public school. In Class of 1891 at Rutgers, taking Scientific course during Freshman and Sophomore years. Studied at School of Industrial Arts, Philadelphia. Residences since leaving college: Philadelphia, 1889-99 (travelling as engineer in many places in New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania and also Santo Domingo, W. I.); New York City, 1899-1904; Pleasantville, N. Y., 1904-07; New York City, 1907; Philadelphia, 1907-11; Merchantville, N. J., 1911-12. Engineering positions with Penn. R. R., Dominican Central R. R., U. S. Deep Waterways (1889-98); Assistant engineer, Third Ave. R. R., New York City, 1899; Chief engineer to Receiver, Third Ave. R. R. & 42d St. R. R., New York City, 1900-01; Civil engineer, Metropolitan Street Railway, New York City, 1901-04; Chief engineer, Philadelphia Terminal Transfer R. R., 1908-10; Manufacturer, Philadelphia, 1910—. Progressive Republican. Avocations: bird and nature study, experimental psychology and psychical research. Married, 1st, Katherine Keen Schlater of Philadelphia, Penn., October 16th, 1899; 2d, Elizabeth Estelle Rice of Trenton, N. J., June 4th, 1908. Daughter, Katherine Louise Farrand, born April 14th, 1909. Expert and specialist in conduit electric street railway construction and municipal highway construction. Inventor and manufacturer of self-clinching nail.

HARRY DUNCAN GARRETSON,

Dingman's Ferry, Penn.

SON of Rev. Gilbert S. Garretson, Rutgers 1859, clergyman, R. C. A., and — Dingman of Dingman's Ferry, Penn. Grandfather, Rev. John Garretson, D.D., rector of Hertzog Hall, N. B. Sem., 1874-75. Residences before entering college: Dingman's Ferry, Penn., until 1884; Franklin Furnace, N. J., later. In Class of 1891 at Rutgers, taking Scientific course during Freshman year. Special student in electricity at Rutgers, 1888-91. Residence since leaving college, Dingman's Ferry, Penn. Occupation: bicycle and other repairs.

RODNEY TUTHILL HOWELL,

215 Union Avenue, Peekskill, N. Y.

RESIDENCE before entering college, Whippany, N. J. In Class of 1891 at Rutgers, taking Scientific course during Freshman and Sophomore years. Chi Psi. Residence since leaving college, Peekskill, N. Y. With Fleischmann Manufacturing Co.

GEORGE MERCER,

60 Wall Street, New York City.

SON of George W. Mercer (deceased) and Cynthia T. Mercer. Born at Yonkers, N. Y., January 8th, 1870. Residence before entering college, Newark, N. J. Prepared at Newark Academy, 1879-87. In Class of 1891 at Rutgers, taking Scientific course during Freshman year. Zeta Psi. Studied at Columbia University Law School. LL.B. (Columbia, 1904). Admitted to the Bar, 1904. Residences since leaving Rutgers: New York City, 1889-95; Vandergrift, Penn., 1895-1901; New York City, 1901—. Married, in New York City, August 12th, 1895, Helen V. Bingham.

DAVID BARCLAY NEVIUS,

6 Winthrop Terrace, East Orange, N. J.

SON of Robert B. Nevius, farmer, and Deborah Layton. Born at Bedminster, N. J., March, 1870. Prepared at Rev. J. L. McNair's private school, Bedminster, N. J. In Class of 1891 at Rutgers, taking Scientific course three months of Freshman year. Accountant. Secretary and treasurer. Congregationalist. Married, at Peapack, N. J., June 22d, 1898, Jennie R. Dailey. Son: William B. Nevius.

CLARENCE HANDLEY TERHUNE,

60 Broadway, New York City.

SON of Andrew Terhune, major U. S. Volunteers, Civil War, and Mary Ophelia Handley. Maternal grandfather, Major John Handley, professor at Princeton University. Paternal ancestors settled in this country 1645. Born at Cranbury, N. J., September 29th, 1868. Residences before entering college: Cranbury, N. J.; New Brunswick, N. J. Prepared at Rutgers Prep. School (7 years). In Class of 1891, taking Scientific course during Freshman and Sophomore years. Member of varsity foot-ball team and varsity lacrosse team, 1887-89. Won mile walk. Chi Phi. Residences since leaving college: New York City; Allenhurst, N. J. Stock broker. Member, Lotus Club, Deal Country Club, Fox Hills Country Club, General Committee, Tammany Society. Episcopalian. Democrat. Avocations: base-ball, golf, motoring. Married, in New York City, February 11th, 1900, Anna Loretta Congheim, daughter of Col. William Congheim and Mary Congheim. Children: Anna Mary Terhune, born November 14th, 1900; John Terhune, born December 26th, 1902; Virginia De Cordova Terhune, born January 12th, 1904.

FRANCIS PERSEN VAN BUREN.

Died April 26th, 1889.

SON of General Daniel T. Van Buren, who served in the Mexican and Civil Wars. Residences before entering college: Kingston, N. Y.; Plainfield, N. J. In laboratory of Thomas A. Edison. Taking a special course in chemistry and electricity at Rutgers, preparatory to re-entering Edison's laboratory. Died at Plainfield, N. J., as the result of being thrown from his horse.

LIBRARY OF CONGRESS

0 028 333 995 6

